Dear Paul,

Thanks for your letter of 8/8 and the mailing I got yesterday.

You didn't brag about how many vote you got!

If Noyes is the man of whom Bud Fensterwald has spoken to me, he also has a high opinion of him. I know he spoke of a CBS Los Angeles man.

I have done nothing on the Bradley angle and, frankly, never believed it.

I have just completed the rough draft of my writing on the King case and the Ray trial. What Foreman did is beyond belief. What do you people think of him? He should be brought to book, and I think it not impossible.

Fact is, that whole thing is simply incredible. It just doesn't seem possible so many wrong things could be done by so very many people. I don't think Ray is the murderer, and the evidence presented to convict him is enough to acquit.

Excuse the haste.

Best regards,

Harold Weisberg
